Chapter 5
Angelo and the Talking Cotton Candy

"We must not risk beginning with memories that are too exciting," said Dangel.

AIT was excited but confused.

"How does this work, Dangel?"

Dangel began, "Angelo fainted due to low blood flow to the brain". Normally, Angelo would wake up after a few seconds, but he got too excited at Sweet Mart. We need to charge his brain up with a spike of excitement. An exciting memory image from his short-term recall should wake him up. Let's get started.

AIT breathed a sigh of relief. Dangel had all the answers and they could now move to the next step. "That's great," said AIT. "We pray and obey the Lord."

The angels' attention went towards the cloud screen. Wandering through an empty Sweet Mart shop was confused Angelo. It was full when he entered. The candies looked as if no one had touched them.

AIT watched in wonderment and confusion. "Will Angelo just be walking around the shop?"

Sangel waved his magic wand towards the cotton candy. "No, my dear AIT. Angelo will have fun now."

"With what," asked AIT.

Sangel smiled, "With cotton candy, what else?"

AIT realized something magical was coming and held his breath.

Sangel pointed his magic wand at aisle four where cotton candy was spinning in a cotton candy machine. Pointing his magic wand, he incanted, "Vocandize!"

The angels watched in amazement as the spinning cotton candy changed into a character with a face, arms, and legs. The cotton candy called to Angelo.

"Hello, Angelo."

It shocked Angelo to see cotton candy talking, let alone having arms, legs, and a face like him. "How can you talk?"

"I am like you. I can speak like you. I am candy, but I'm a living and breathing creature just like you."

"But how is this possible?"

"My dear Angelo, I am the way the Lord wants me to be."

Then the cotton candy started running. It ran and jumped over the cotton candy machine.

"Catch me if you can! Eat me if you can."

Angelo's heart started to race, and he could feel it pounding, like it did when he ran fast.

The cotton candy ran away from Angelo, but Angelo was close to catching it. Just as he got close enough to grab it, Dangel in a flash pointed his magic wand toward the running cotton candy and shouted,

"Sugaraindize."

The cotton candy turned into a fluffy pink cloud. It started to rain tiny sugar pieces. Angelo, unable to keep his balance, slipped on the sugary floor and passed out!

The angels wa[...] to [...] was not supposed to end like this." [...] This didn't work out. What do we do now?"

Dangel replied, "We need to try something else. We have to try again with a candy that has a stronger stimulus. What would you suggest Angelo, a 9-year-old boy with Type 1 diabetes, passes out in a Sweet Mart shop after eating too many candies.

Angels come in his dream to rescue him, and that's where the story starts.

Angelo and the talking cotton candy
Sangel(Super angel) pointed his magic wand at aisle four where cotton candy was spinning in a cotton candy machine. He incanted, "Vocandize!"

A new plan and a jellosaur!
The candy on the top of aisle seven changed into a big green reptilian character. It moved around and roared, "Jellosaur!"

SPIDERPOP
Angelo took off as Spiderpop, quick and light on its feet. It sang, "Spider pop, spider pop, eight legs, and a top, kid stop, spider mop!"

Candy cool
He looked like a human S'mores Man. Angelo saw his candy cool face and was shocked but not scared. "Who are you? Do I know you?"

Will Angelo come out of his coma?
